Full Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive in Paris

Arrive in Paris and check in to your centrally located hotel, suited to your budget. Take the afternoon to familiarise yourself with the local neighbourhood and settle into Parisian cuisine with steak-frites in a typical French bistro.

Day 2: Citroën 2CV Experience

See Paris with a unique Citroën 2CV experience tour. Start at the Eiffel Tower and work your way around the city from the Champs-Élysées and Arc de Triomphe to the Notre-Dame de Paris and Place de la Concorde. After lunch take the funicular up to the Sacré-Cœur to explore the vibrant Montmartre neighbourhood. Stop by Le Wagon Bleu for a unique dinner on wood-panelled railway carriage which offers Corsican cuisine.

Day 3: Palace of Versailles - Moulin Rouge

Today you will take a guided tour of the extraordinary Classical and Baroque, Palace of Versailles. The history of this former royal residence began in 1623 and it was designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1979. You will get to see the magnificent gardens, Hall of Mirrors and Apartment of the King. Enjoy an unforgettable evening with dinner and a show at the birthplace of the French Cancan, the Moulin Rouge.

Day 4: Louvre - Seine River Cruise

No visit to Paris is complete without a visit to the Louvre to see some of the world's best-known works of art including the Mona Lisa and the Venus de Milo. For those wanting the experience to be a little different, you can turn it into an exciting themed treasure hunt with THATMuse. Enjoy a boat cruise on the River Seine followed by a creative dinner at Balls restaurant where all the food is spherical!

Day 5: Markets - Shopping

Paris is famed for its incredible markets and shopping so today, you will do both. Begin at one of the markets depending on what you are looking for such as food, antiques or leather goods. You can see all our recommendations here. You won't be able to resist trying some of the samples on offer. Head to Les Halles for a bite to eat followed by a stroll along Rue Saint-Honoré where you will find all the flagship designer stores.

Day 6: Catacombs - Montparnasse Tower Panoramic

For something a little unusual head to the Montparnasse area of the city and visit the Paris Catacombs. Travel underground to discover a network of tunnels that were converted into a cemetery in the 18th and 19th century. Spend your last evening 56 floors up at the Montparnasse Tower Panoramic Observation Deck. Time it right, and you can watch the sunset over the most romantic city in the world!

Day 7: Depart from Paris

Sadly, today is your last day in Paris. If time permits, enjoy a coffee and a stroll along the River Seine before heading to the airport.
