Suggested itinerary:

Day 1: Arrival Belfast

Collect your rental car (not included but can be added) and check in to your accommodation. Explore the city of Belfast, famous for its industrial past and turbulent history. Belfast city centre has undergone considerable expansion and regeneration in recent years, notably around Victoria Square. Overnight in Belfast.

Day 2: Castle Ward

Head to the haunting location of Tollymore Forest Park, located at the foot of the Mourne Mountains. This was featured in the very first episode of Game of Thrones and reappears in the scene where Ned Stark comes across the gored stag and dire wolf pups. Stop off on the banks of the River Quoile, which you will recognise from a couple of key scenes in Season 1. This is where Robb's army needs to cross the Trident and where Catelyn and Robb learn of Ned's beheading. Continue to Castle Ward – perhaps more familiar as Winterfell. Inside this walled demesne, you can explore a truly spectacular house, an exotic sunken garden and haunting woodland. This is the location where King Baratheon and his retinue arrive and are met by the Starks in Season 1. Visit Audley's Field at Strangford Lough, the backdrop of Robb's Camp in Season 2 and the place he first meets Talisa. Overnight in Belfast.

Day 3: Murlough Bay

Travel north along the Causeway Coast to the Cushenden Caves, which you may remember as the location where Melisandre gives birth to the shadow baby after being brought ashore by Davos Seaworthy in Season 2. The Caves were product of extreme weather conditions and were formed over a period of 400 million years. Continue to Murlough Bay, which becomes the Iron Islands in Season 3. This is a beautiful, remote setting with views across the sea to Rathlin Island and the Mull of Kintyre. Your day would not be complete without a visit to one of the country's most photographed locations; The Dark Hedges. Planted by the Stuart family in the 18th Century, this spectacular avenue of beech trees line King's Road as Arya Stark makes her escape from the King's Landing in Season 2. Overnight in Londonderry.

Day 4: Downhill Beach

Downhill Beach Visit one of the country's most iconic locations, Downhill Beach, an 11km stretch of sand and surf located on the Causeway Coast. This location is home to Mussenden, a tiny temple perched on a 120ft cliff, high above the Atlantic Ocean. Downhill was transformed into Dragonstone in Season 2. Head to Ballintoy, one of the most beautiful spots in Northern Ireland located between the famous Giant's Causeway and Carrick-a-Rede Rope Bridge. This spectacular harbour location has been used as the Iron Islands; the spot where Theon Greyjoy arrives back to and where he first meets his sister Yara. Overnight in Londonderry.

Day 5: Depart

Unfortunately, it is now time to leave Northern Ireland. Return to the airport and join your flight home.
